MUSEUMS, ARCHIVES AND RESEARCH INSTITUTES FOCUSING ON PARTICULAR MUSICIANS

- Museum, exhibition
- Archive, special library
- Research institute, research department, complete edition
- More than one category within a museum

Note: The map shows those facilities organised in the working group 'Music Museums in Germany' as well as other publicly or privately funded institutions that preserve exhibitions on particular musicians. Archives, research institutes and research departments are included if their principal tasks are aligned on individual musicians and they are either independent or rooted in another institutional facility. Also included are complete editions not institutionally connected with an explicitly named research department. Facilities with broad-based collecting or research policies are excluded, as are associations and societies devoted to the memory of particular musicians, many of which maintain their own archives. These facilities are listed in the information portal of the German Music Information Centre.

Information on exhibition policies, collection focuses and visiting addresses of the facilities shown here can be found at www.miz.org/institutionen/musikinstrumentensammlungen-museen-gedenkstaetten-s32
