

Sources: German Music Information Centre and German Theatre and Orchestra Association, 2018

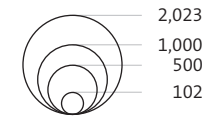

- A Aalto-Theater Essen
- B Theater Krefeld und Mönchengladbach
- C Deutsche Oper am Rhein, Düsseldorf
- D Theater & Philharmonie Thüringen, Altenburg
- E Mittelsächsisches Theater

MUSIC THEATRES

- State theatre
- Regional theatre
- Municipal (or municipal union) theatre
- Music theatre with two or more sites

SEATING CAPACITY OF PRINCIPAL VENUES

Note: The map indicates the primary performance location for the theatre concerned; other auditoriums or venues are excluded. For theatres currently closed for renovation, the seating capacity refers to the relevant interim venue.

- 1 Interim venue: Theaterzelt.
- 2 Interim venue: Martini-Park.
- 3 Auditorium for concert performances, music theatre lacking a permanent venue.
- 4 Interim venue: Malsaal.
- 5 Interim venue: Staatenhaus.
- 6 Interim venue: Großes Haus. Music theatre in cooperation with Nordhausen Theatre, Lyric Opera Studio Weimar and Mainz School of Music.
- 7 Music theatre in cooperation with Meiningen State Theatre.
- 8 Alternating co-production of music theatre with members of the Brandenburg Union of Municipal Theatres.
- 9 Classified as a regional theatre (Landestheater) owing to its regular guest performances at other locations in Saxony-Anhalt.
- 10 Classified as a regional theatre (Landestheater) owing to its regular guest performances at other locations in Bavaria.
- 11 Classified as a municipal union theatre as there are generally no guest performances.

miz: Deutsches Musikinformationszentrum

in cooperation with

T Deutscher Bühnenverein
Bundesverband der Theater und Orchester

Cartography: S. Dutzmann
Leipzig, 2018

© German Music Council/
German Music Information Centre